when you die

Universal Life Insurance

A death not only leaves behind loved ones, but also overwhelming financial obligations. And, if you're like most people, you don't have enough life insurance to keep your family afloat if an unexpected death occurs. Give yourself and your loved ones a gift of love – put yourself in Good Hands with coverage from Allstate Benefits.

Without a Life Insurance policy, your family may have to tap into their savings, retirement, or 401k to help cover final expenses and everyday living expenses, should a breadwinner die unexpectedly.

Here's How It Works

You choose the coverage that's right for you and your family. With planning, the death benefit can pass to your beneficiaries free from state or federal estate taxes. Consult with your tax advisor for specific information. Then, if life comes to an end while coverage is in force, your beneficiary can receive a tax-free death benefit that can be used to help pay for funeral expenses, mortgage payments and more.

Meeting Your Needs

- You choose the death benefit amount to leave behind
- Coverage for spouse and children through a separate certificate or rider*
- Premiums are affordable and conveniently payroll deducted
- Tax benefits, withdrawals and loans are available. However, penalties and taxes may affect your decision

With Allstate Benefits, you gain peace of mind knowing your loved ones will receive a financial safety net when you die – think of it as your final gift of love.

Are you in Good Hands? You can be.

*Coverage for spouse and child(ren) may be limited to a percentage of the employee's face amount in some states.
Partial withdrawals, surrenders, non-qualified additional benefit rider charges and loans from life insurance policies may be subject to ordinary income taxes and possibly an additional 10% federal tax penalty. Outstanding loan balances and withdrawals generally reduce the death benefit and cash value. With proper planning, the death benefit can pass to your beneficiaries free from state or federal estate taxes. Please consult with your tax advisor for specific information.

With the loss of the primary wage earner, 1 in 3 households would have immediate trouble paying living expenses¹

Common financial concerns among Americans include: the ability to afford a comfortable retirement, longevity risks, long-term care, and medical expenses.¹

Meet Will

Will is like any parent who has emotional and financial responsibilities. He's worried about how his family will make ends meet if he dies unexpectedly. Most importantly, he worries about leaving them with a large debt.

Here is what weighs heavily on his mind:

- He has a mortgage, and still owes a substantial amount before it is paid off
- His children go to private school, and will need income to help continue their education as they get older
- His debt to income ratio is high and would be a hardship on his family
- Daily living expenses for items such as gas, food, insurance, electricity, and water are a necessary part of life
- Funeral expenses are high and the government provides very little for assistance

Will's Universal Life coverage brought comfort to his family, because they received a lump-sum cash benefit to help with their everyday living expenses.

CHOOSE

Will chooses a Universal Life policy to help protect his family in the event of his untimely death.

 - He was taken by ambulance to the nearest hospital emergency room

 - The emergency room doctors and nurses worked tirelessly to revive him, but they could not save him

Prepare for the future today

Losing a loved one can be devastating. Final expenses and daily bills only add to your worries. Our Universal Life Insurance coverage may be used to:

- Pay off a mortgage or debts
- Provide for child care or educational expenses
- Replace income to continue the same standard of living

One way you can determine if you and your family need the coverage is to review the list below and check some or all that apply to you and your family.

- You're the primary wage earner in your family
- Your family would have trouble living comfortably without your income
- You have regular debts, like mortgage, car payment or credit cards
- You have children under 18
- You want flexible coverage that can change with your needs
- You'd like to plan to supplement your retirement income in later years

Here's how Universal Life works

Premium payments are deducted from your paycheck and added to the fund value. Each month, expenses and cost of insurance charges are deducted from the fund value and any excess in the fund continues to earn interest at a rate of at least 4% per year. Interest is not taxed as income until it is withdrawn.

Fund value and premium payments

Over time, as you continue to pay your premium, your fund value may grow. Monthly premiums are flexible, meaning you can choose to pay as much or as little as you can afford, subject to policy minimums and maximums.
